The Weather.

Warmer, fair weather.—Greeley.

FRENCH peas and asparagus.—Calhoun's.

The statement of the First National Bank is published in this issue.

AMERICAN peas, better and cheaper than French, try them at G. W. Geisel's.

C. W. West has been elected Mayor of Flemingsburg, and H. H. Kendall, Marshal.

COAL oil. Guaranteed non-explosive. Try it and you will use no other. At G. W. Geisel's.

The ice in the river continues heavy, and navigation is entirely suspended from Pittsburg down.

Dr. G. W. MARTIN is spending the week in town and can be found at Ammon's photograph gallery.

MR. AND MRS. R. L. MANNEN, of Covington, celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of their wedding the other day.

MR. GEORGE M. ROBB has accepted a position as traveling salesman with Hill & Smith, wholesale grocers, of Cincinnati.

REV. THOMAS HANFORD returns thanks to Mrs. Evaline Hutchins for a barrel of flour, and several others for new year's presents.

MR. WILLIAM COLE, who met with an accident Thursday night, is recovering from his injuries and will be out again in a few days.

HILLIARD FIELDS was drowned in Red-oak Creek at Ripley the other day while skating. The accident happened in the presence of a crowd of people, who, it is said, were powerless to aid in rescuing.

The case of the Commonwealth against Anthony Weiland, taken to the Superior Court from this county, was argued last Thursday for defendant, and continued to give the other side a chance to be heard.

Tone up the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Thousands have found health and relief from suffering by the use of this great blood purifier when all other means failed.

At Hazel Green the other day, Jack Cox drank three large table glasses of whisky. It's not every fellow who can do such a thing as that, and Cox will not attempt it again. He died thirty minutes after drinking the third glass.

HENRY WASHINGTON has been sent to the penitentiary for twenty-one years from Russellville for killing an old man in 1883. He escaped at the time, and was a fugitive for two or three years, the officers finally capturing him at Louisville.

AFTER a test of over fifteen years there can be little question as to the durability of the celebrated Diamond lens spectacles, and while they preserve the sight their lasting qualities are such as to make frequent changing unnecessary. The genuine are for sale by Ballenger.

FORTY years' experience in every clime on earth has proved Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to be the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs, and all lung diseases. Neglected colds often become incurable ailments. Deal with them in time, and prevent their becoming deep-seated in the system.

MESSES. S. R. BROOKS and Henry Green, formerly of this city, opened the new Ashland Hotel at Lexington last Saturday. This hotel has been newly fitted up and refurnished throughout, and when Maysville people visit Lexington they will not find a better place to stop at than the Ashland.

JAMES GIBSON, a desperate moonshiner of Montgomery County, was arrested the other day by United States Marshal Day, and has been lodged in jail at Louisville. Gibson has been a terror of his section for years. Day got the drop on him, though, this time, and he will now suffer the penalty for his misdeeds.

G. B. LANCASTER, of Clinton County, Mo., and J. W. Lancaster, of Missouri, Montana, are visiting their brother, Rev. R. Lancaster, at Mt. Carmel. The former removed to Missouri in 1844, and the latter has lived in Oregon and Montana since 1849. The present is their first visit to Kentucky in all these years.

INFORMATION arrived Saturday afternoon that Charles White, Sr., of Maysville, had lost his mind. He is the brother-in-law of Dr. J. J. Waugh, and father of Charles C. White, formerly editor of the Rambler, at this place.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Our contemporary has been misinformed. The afflicted party, we are informed, is Mr. Charles C. White, who resides somewhere in the West, instead of Mr. Charles White, of this city.

Big Blaze at Carlisle.

Carlisle was visited by another destructive fire last night. The flames were discovered in the dental office of Dr. H. P. Genslinger shortly after 12 o'clock, and, notwithstanding the determined efforts of the citizens, nearly half a block in the business center of the place was destroyed before the fire was gotten under control. The damage is estimated at over $40,000, with insurance on the burned property amounting to $25,000.

Dr. Genslinger and Newton Craig were buried in the falling walls, and probably fatally injured.

Following is a partial list of the estimated losses and insurance:

J. A. Chappel, dry goods, $15,000, insured for $10,000; F. M. Peale, on building, $9,000, insured for $5,500; J. W. B. Lee, $8,000, insured for $2,000; J. H. Piper, $7,000, insured for $3,800. Among the other losses are J. G. Wilson & Co., grocers; Mrs. Mollie Brewington, milliner; A. J. McIntyre, on building; Dr. Genslinger, office fixtures and furniture. Later reports place the damage at $75,000.

THE Probate Judge at Georgetown, O., has granted the following marriage licenses since our last report:

William Bush and Mary E. Borden. Charles Phillips and Mrs. Jane Ashmore. C. C. Lawwill and Coreida Gray. Lewis Bocock and Mattie Slack. Fred Lauer and Ella J. Frost. Clarence E. Hancock and V. Earhart. John L. Hawkins and Elizabeth Fox. John McCaffrey and Ida Smith.

ENGINEERS have been at work within the past few days surveying a switch to connect the Kentucky Central with the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad. The survey, we understand, leaves the Kentucky Central near the Lexington street crossing, and runs east through the lands of Mr. Shafer, Mr. Tolle and others, joining the latter road somewhere in Chester. Good connections are wanted at this point, as Mr. Huntington—so we are told—expects a big freight traffic east, from Central Kentucky, over the Kentucky Central and Maysville and Big Sandy.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM P. SMOOT celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last Sunday, at their hospitable home near Fern Leaf. The event was the occasion of a partial re-union of the family, and their enjoyment was enlivened by the presence of a number of their relatives. Dr. John T. Larew, of St. Louis; Messrs. Barrett and Broad Jenkins, of Paris; Miss Nellie Jenkins, of Ripley; Miss Jennie Taylor, of Falmouth; Miss Lida Smoot, of this city; Mrs. S. N. Smoot and daughter, of Lamar, Mo.; Dr. P. G. Smoot, of Flemingsburg; Mrs. A. E. Downing and daughter, and Mrs. Susie Perrine were among those present.

ELDER W. W. HALL, of Newport, after a successful pastorate of over a year, has re-entered upon his new year with renewed vigor and ardor. In a social epistolary communion with his special christian friend, of Desha Valley, he writes: "You must congratulate the young parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Arthur, for me. I know they must be proud and happy of their prize. And the daughter, Marie Louise,—well, she is not personally acquainted with me, but I am sure she has heard her grandfather speak of me, and consequently feels as though she knows me. On this ground I shall venture to send her my love. If she smiles [she did] when you deliver it, please let me know; but if it makes her cry, please don't mention it."

County Court Proceedings.

The regular monthly term of the County Court was held yesterday, Judge Coons presiding.

The following reports of settlements, filed at last term and continued for exceptions, were ordered recorded:

Wm. Bramel was exonerated from payment of tax on 47 acres of land, assessed at $2370.

Maysville Literary Institute.

This school is open for the reception of a few more young men. Charges for tuition will be made from the date of entrance. Latin, Greek, German, French, English and mathematics taught thoroughly.

C. J. HALL, Principal.

Gilbert—Huntley Comedy Company.

The week's engagement at the opera house by Belle Gilbert, supported by J. H. Huntley and company, was begun last night. Owing to an unavoidable delay, it was a late hour when the curtain was run up. The audience were well repaid, however, for their patience. "Young Mrs. Winthrop" was presented for the first time in this city, Miss Gilbert appearing as "Constance" and J. H. Huntley as "Douglas Winthrop." Those who witnessed the performance speak in the most flattering terms of it. The characters were all well sustained, the costumes were elegant, and the play gave entire satisfaction. To-night the company will appear in "Rosedale." Admission 15, 25, and 35 cents. Seats can be reserved without extra charge.

Circuit Court.

The regular January term of the Maysville Circuit Court convened this morning, Judge Cole presiding.

The following grand jury was empaneled:

B. A. Wallingford, John W. Osborne, John G. Bacon, Campbell King, Daniel Norris, Ross P. Gault, S. M. Worthington, Stephen Valentine, David S. White, John Knowleshaw, John B. Poyntz, S. H. Mitchell, G. W. Stiles, Thomas Winter, Alex. Duke, R. D. Owens.

The accounts of M. D. Farrow and J. B. Burgess, Justices of the Peace, amounting to $2.00 each were sworn to and allowed.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottle free at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Personal.

Mr. Joe Hart returned last night from his trip to Chicago.

Mr. Thomas R. Phister has returned from a trip to Frankfort on legal business. Mr. Ferd Heehinger, of Baltimore, is here visiting his brother, Mr. D. Heehinger.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hall and daughter, Miss Susie, left on the noon train Monday for New Orleans, where they will remain till spring.

Removal.

Dr. G. M. Williams has removed his dental office to building on Third street, adjoining Dr. Shackelford's office.

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers. Ask your grocer for Foerster's City Butter Crackers. They are the best.

Interesting Services at the Baptist Church.

The good congregation that came out to the court house on Sunday night, despite the dreadful weather, were more than repaid by the unusually interesting services. The sermon was a graphic description of the road to ruin, delivered in Rev. R. B. Garrett's earnest, unaffected style, closing with a touching appeal to the wayward to retrace their steps from any of the "milestones" on the way, and start in "that better road." The choir was assisted by Mrs. R. T. Cummings, nee Miss Julia Pierce, Miss Lotta McDaniel and Mr. Frank Ellis. The friends of Mrs. Cummings were glad of the opportunity to hear her charming voice once more, and the duet, "Hope Beyond," sung by Miss McDaniel and Mr. Ellis, was beautiful, and was sung with the "spirit and as well as the understanding." May they keep on singing as sweetly, till their voices join in the celestial choir, where that "hope" will be a glorious reality. Let christian people assemble together. Don't stay at home on account of the weather. For one thing I have learned, and that is this—That that is the time the blessings they wish.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.
